Mystery Trip Starts Pre-Pageant Activities

If there's one sure way to get a girl's attention, it's a shopping trip. Beginning as a "Mystery Trip", eight Miss Grayling contestants, their pageant moms, and the pageant committee travelled to Traverse City on Saturday for a shopping trip at Cherryland Mall and then dinner at Dills Oldtown Restaurant.

This was the first real get together for the contestants and it was a fun one. Beginning Sunday, January 4th, the contestants will be busy almost every evening. Rehearsal for dance routines begins Sunday with Louise Quigley at Louise's Dance Academy. Monday, it's swimming, a movie and slumber party at Marshall's Hospitality House. Tuesday is beauty night at the Golden Touch and Wednesday a photo session with Jim Adams.

Friday there's a home basketball game, so the girls were excused from any practice, but Saturday will find them working with Judith Howard, owner and manager of "Finishing Touches" and a beauty, fashion and health consultant from Traverse City. Miss Howard has an extensive background as a professional model. She attended the John Robert Powers Agency and School of Modeling, and has worked in both runway and photographic modeling. Judy is on the board of directors of the Miss Grand Traverse area pageant and acts as charm director for that pageant. Norman Naour, pageant director, hopes that contestants will gain information that will help them in the future as well as for the Miss Grayling pageant.

Sunday the girls will enjoy cross country skiing at Hanson Hills, have dinner afterward, and then attend more dance rehearsal. Pre-pageant activities are all designed to help the girls get to know one another and to prepare them to work closely together that final hectic week. Pageant contestants must be willing to give up all other activities for the month preceding the pageant. The committee also hopes to show the girls that anything worth achieving is worth working hard for.

Tickets for the pageant may be purchased at the Chamber office, Cornell Realty, Chief Shoppenagons Hotel, and Mac's Drugs.

Consumers Sells River Frontage To National Forest Service

Consumers Power Company has sold more than 13,700 acres of prime river frontage in the Huron-Manistee National Forests to the United States Forest Service for $6 million.

The lands being sold are all located within the Forests' management areas of the AuSable and Manistee Rivers. Both rivers have active nesting areas for the bald eagle, an endangered species.

Through this acquisition, the Huron-Manistee Forests will be able to provide undeveloped habitat and protection for the bald eagle. Also, both rivers are nationally known for their outstanding recreational opportunities, such as fishing and camping.

"This sale is part of Consumers Power's 'self-help' in restoring the company to financial stability," said Bill Reid, manager of land and right of way. "While this provides us much needed income, it is also a public benefit in allowing people to continue to use the land."

This sale will provide the public with more than 70 miles of river frontage. Also, the acquisition will enable the Forest Service to consolidate its holdings to provide improved recreational use and the protection of the rivers. Portions of the AuSable have been designated as part of the Federal Wild and Scenic River System, and the Manistee has been recommended for similar designation.

One hundred twenty acres of the 13,700 acres are located in Crawford County. Iosco County has 6,600 acres, Manistee 5,415 acres, Alcona 900, and Oscoda 665.

Hanson Hills Park Opens Downhill Ski Slopes

A few inches of snow on Monday, Dec. 29, allowed Hanson Hills to open its downhill slopes for part of the Christmas holidays.

The park opened at noon Tuesday, Dec. 30, and by the weekend business was good for the community-operated park.

"I've been here two years, and it was the busiest I've ever seen it," said manager Scott Remsing.

He estimated as many as 500 people used the downhill slopes and 100 were on the cross-country trails each day Friday and Saturday, Jan. 2 and 3.

Although the downhill slopes weren't open for the first week of the Christmas school vacation, Hanson Hills personnel were hoping for more snow to make the rest of the ski season successful.

Remsing said all the instructional ski classes scheduled for Hanson Hills are getting filled. He said the two Saturday classes for kids are filled but there are a few openings for a Thursday night class. An adult class on Monday night still has a few openings.

The park hours are 6 to 10 p.m. Monday, Thursday, and Friday, 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday.

All the downhill slopes at the park are open. For up-to-date ski information about downhill slopes and cross-country trails at the park call 348-9266.

Bud Joyce Elected County Commissioner Chairman for 1987

Garland "Bud" Joyce, District 7 commissioner, was elected chairman of the Crawford County Board of Commissioners Monday, Jan. 5, in the organizational meeting at the courthouse.

Joyce was elected by a 4-3 count in a secret ballot.

Crawford County Clerk Elizabeth Wieland called the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m. and asked commissioner Mary Harland, the chairwoman of the board for the last two years, to act as temporary chairperson. Harland opened the meeting for nominations and commissioner Jeannette Kitchen nominated Harland for chairperson. Commissioner John Miller nominated Joyce for chairperson.

No other nominations were offered so the commissioners voted by secret ballot.

After the 4-3 vote in favor of Joyce for chairman, nominations for vice-chairperson were made. Joyce nominated Miller and Kitchen nominated Harland.

In a vote by show of hands, Harland won 4-3. Voting for Harland were Kitchen, Mattis, Miller, and Harland. Voting for Miller were Joyce, Ruddy, and Haight.

Joyce will head an experienced county commissioner board for 1987. At the first meeting in 1987, Larry Mattis began his 6th two-year term and his 11th year as a county commissioner. Mattis was chairman of the board for two years.

Mary Harland, Jeannette Kitchen, and John Miller began their 5th two-year terms and all are starting their 9th year as commissioners. Kitchen has served as four years as chairwoman of the board and Harland served as chairwoman of the board the last two years.

Joyce begins his third term as county commissioner and starts his fifth year. Earl Haight, District 3 commissioner, begins his first term and year as commissioner.

Chairman Joyce and vice-chairwoman Harland worked together to place commissioners to about 34 committee and delegate appointments.

Some of the changes are Ruddy replaces Kitchen as chair of the Ways and Means Committee (Finance) with Kitchen staying as a member of the committee and Harland replacing Mattis; Harland replaces Joyce on the Building and Personnel Committee with Mattis staying as chair and Haight serving as the other member; Harland replaces Kitchen as chair of Law Enforcement with Miller replacing Joyce and Mattis serving as the other member; Joyce replaces Harland as chair of the Labor Committee with Harland and Ruddy serving as members; Kitchen replaces Harland as chair of the Judicial Committee with Harland and Ruddy serving as members, and Kitchen replaced Ruddy as a delegate to the Ambulance Corps meeting. Most other committee and delegate appointments remained the same as last year with Earl Haight taking over most of the appointments held by the former District 3 commissioner Andie Neilson.

The commissioners set their meeting dates as the second Tuesday of each month and last Thursday of each month with a couple of exceptions for holidays and other special events.

NEW CHAIRMAN — Garland "Bud" Joyce, shown here with Senator Connie Binsfeld when he helped initiate a bill giving Crawford more tax money from military lands, has been elected chairman of the county commissioner board.

FBI Names Suspect For Grayling Bank Burglary

A suspect in the Grayling Chemical Bank theft has been arraigned in U.S. District Court in Bay City on a charge of bank burglary.

On December 23, Richard Montgomery, 36, formerly of Grayling, appeared in District Court in connection with the bank burglary of $46,485 from Chemical Bank North in Grayling.

An FBI special agent from Traverse City involved in the investigation of the case said it would probably be a month or so before there are any court decisions concerning the charge against the suspect.

The FBI agent said the theft was an after-hours burglary.

According to published reports of the burglary charge in U.S. District Court, the suspect had worked at the bank before the burglary. None of the missing money has been reported as recovered yet.

The theft took place between 7 p.m. Friday, March 29, 1985, and 8:30 a.m. Saturday, March 30, 1985, when employees discovered the money was gone.

Three ivory-colored trays containing mostly money were taken in the theft. Police said no forcible entry was made and they believe a key was used in the theft.

SKI SEASON — It was a busy weekend at Hanson Hills with both downhill and cross-country skiers using the community-operated park. Gina Medley, Jim Gardiner, and Tom Gardiner (left to right) set out on the start of a cross-country ski trail. (Chuck Kolb Photo)

About 400 persons enjoyed a Christmas dinner and celebrated the 350th birthday of the National Guard of the United States at the Camp Grayling Armory on Sunday, Dec. 7.

From noon to 3:30 p.m. all members of National Guard units based at Camp Grayling and their families participated in a Christmas dinner at the armory.

From 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. a celebration for the National Guard's 350th birthday was held. Colonel Richard Schmidt, Camp Grayling Commander, and Colonel Nunn, second in command at Camp Grayling, thanked unit members and families for coming and acknowledged retired guard members. Colonel Schmidt then presented a short history of the National Guard.

The guard units then cut a birthday cake in honor of the 350th birthday. The cake, made by Walt Waite, of Grayling, had an outline of Michigan with dots representing the home bases of units. A picture of the cake will be entered into a contest among National Guard units in the state.

Crawford AuSable School District Report

MIDDLE SCHOOL PROGRAM

There has been a great deal of publicity regarding our middle school construction project, a long awaited quality solution to the middle school facility problem. There has not, however, been much discussion of middle school program changes that can be expected when the building re-opens in the fall of 1987.

The middle school curriculum review committee will conclude its work in February with presentation and recommendations to the district curriculum committee and the Board of Education. They are presently working to finish middle school statements of philosophy about what the district believes a middle school should be. This philosophy will guide the committee as they establish the structure for the program for each grade level within the middle school.

The academic portion of the curriculum has been reviewed and revised in total during the past four years as part of district wide curriculum development. Middle school students are all required to take English, reading or literature, mathematics, science and social studies each year. With the renovations, students will have quality facilities available for band, industrial arts, home economics, art, computer science, foreign language and physical education — greatly expanding the variety of electives available consistent with the exploratory nature of a middle school.

The middle school concept dictates that a middle school not be a "miniature high school." Its structure and program must be in agreement with the developmental needs of early adolescents. It is under this premise that the middle school committee is acting. They are particularly concerned with the needs of fifth and sixth grade students and view the inclusion of these two grades into the middle school as an opportunity to improve upon the present transition between elementary school and middle school.

While a few final decisions have been made, it has been decided that the fifth grade will continue as a self-contained program clustered on the middle floor of the building next to the library. Exploratory coursework may be made available to fifth grade students one hour each day as their transition to the middle school is closely monitored. They will remain with the same teacher more than 80% of the day. Particular attention is being paid to the need for physical activity although that activity may differ from what is traditionally thought of as recess. The committee is reviewing the possibility of reducing the movement of sixth grade students with fewer daily class changes thus making the transition between elementary and middle school more gradual. It is anticipated that the structure of the day for seventh and eighth grade students will undergo little change.

It is exciting to observe the physical changes at the middle school construction site. It is equally as exciting to think about the quality programming in a quality educational atmosphere that will be offered to middle school age students next fall. The committee's recommendations and actions of the Board will be fully publicized after they conclude their work in late February or early March.

Northern Views

Parents, don't let your babies grow up to be newspaper photographers.

A newspaper photographer has as much chance as a football referee or a politician of pleasing all of the people all of the time.

The biggest problem newspaper photographers deal with isn't deadlines, focal points, and aperture f-stops. It's the person you want to shoot (with the camera).

Suppose a newspaper photographer is lucky enough to capture a pretty good news photo — one that catches the subject in some interesting action with a background that provides plenty of information. The photo could be good enough to win awards, yet it may still evoke a bit fat "Yeeeeeccccckkk" from the person in the picture.

"Oh, that isn't a very good photo of me. That isn't my best side."

Or, over the years I've heard:
"My hair is messed up."

"I don't look very good. Why don't you learn how to take a good photograph?"

"You caught me on a bad day."

Can you imagine how tough portrait photographers have it? Some people are awfully hard to please when it comes to their pictures. I guess some people think they're better looking than they really are.

Now, on the other end of the scale, there are quite a few of us who know our place on the one to ten scale of good looks. We low scorers would rather not be photographed. No, the camera won't break when it is pointed our way. But it might snicker a bit.

Crawford County Avalanche

Dear Editor:
Six hundred and twenty-four (624) signatures of Crawford County residents were gathered within four and a half (4½) hours on petitions dated, Dec. 16, 1986 (copies enclosed). The petitions, obviously not in legal referendum form, clearly show a genuine grass-root interest in the United States Department of Agriculture program for distributing food commodities. Those that signed for absent recipients are initialed. Many that signed are not recipients of U.S.D.A. commodities, but they are volunteers who help those with infirmities and/or pick up rations for those that can not come in person. Many had knowledge of the existence of other commodities, not available in this county, but are available in other communities.

Copies of these petitions are being sent to your good offices in hopes of enlisting your help (and goodwill) in bringing about a more equitable distribution of ALL U.S.D.A. commodities to low income families. Presently, the retail value per person amounts to about .13 cents per day for some and for others not more than .47 cents per day, in this county.

Eligibility should be more carefully calculated on a per person per income basis and distributed likewise. That is not the case now. Examples:

1. A family of three (3) usually receives the same rations as a family of one (1), and a family of seven (7) usually receives the same rations as a family of four (4), etc.

2. Four of the seven available commodities are given out in the same amounts regardless of family size.

The following questions need to be answered so that the people can have a better understanding of the U.S.D.A. food commodities program as it is distributed and in terms of tax dollars spent. An informed public is necessary for a viable democracy among other conditions.

I. What governmental body determines the formula for eligibility to which commodities?

II. How many families or persons are eligible to receive U.S.D.A. commodities in Michigan? In this country?

III. How much does the U.S.D.A. pay for the raw basic foods that are processed, packaged and eventually distributed?

A. Is the money paid directly to farmers or to brokers?

B. The money comes from what designated funds?

IV. How much does it cost the U.S.D.A. to process and package this food stuff?

A. Is it privately contracted for or is it done by open bidding or closed bidding?

B. From what designated funds are these services paid for?

V. What governmental body or bodies pay for the transportation and storage of U.S.D.A. COMMODITIES?

A. Are these services privately contracted for or are they subject to open or closed bidding?

VI. What governmental body pays the district agencies that are responsible for the distribution of said commodities?

A. How much is paid to these agencies for distributing the said commodities?

B. Paid from what designated funds?

Any information to the above questions would be greatly appreciated by those that signed the petitions and many many others that are as uninformed as this writer, who has often heard that office holders like to hear from their constituents, particularly from groups of a like mind. Unfortunately, poverty afflicted people do not have the resources to group together and be heard from as a group. Much of their time is spent just surviving or worrying how to do so. The money for the copying, mailing, etc. of these petitions fortunately was donated by one person, otherwise you would not have heard from the petitioners. A democracy can not truly exist in the constant atmosphere of inequity, poverty, and deprivation.

So that the information requested can reach more people in this very concerned community, would you please address your answers to the above questions to the Crawford County Avalanche newspaper, located at 100½ Michigan Ave., Grayling, Mi. 49738? Would you please send a copy to Greta Moore, Rte. #5, Box 5219, Grayling, Michigan, 49738? Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
Joan Morrison

Why Not Use Sand on Roads?

Letter to the Editor:

I would like to address this letter to the Crawford County Road Commission with the request that they reply in the Avalanche.

Now that the snow season is upon us again, some of us are wondering why the Road Commission is still spreading brine on our roads. We were under the impression that there is a ban on using brine. A specific concern comes to mind, i.e., in our subdivision, for instance, all wells are located in front of the residences, therefore close to the road. How long before our drinking water will be contaminated? Some of the older wells are only 25 to 30 feet deep. Why can't sand be used instead of brine? There is a lot of sand available in this County so cost should not be a factor.

Respectfully,
Sigrid Schramm

Almanack

More Huck Finn needed

by Richard Milliman

LET'S PRODUCE a column the easy way this week...by presenting, without too much judgments, words that others have spoken or written, about a variety of subjects. Herewith a collection of cogent quotations:

A HOUSEWIFE, who asked to remain anonymous, discussed with California newspaper reporters some of her insights on life in Mission Viejo, reflecting on the stereotypical "Yuppie" life in the affluent suburbs:

"It's just a status thing here. You must be happy, you must be well-rounded, and you must have children who do a lot of things. If you don't jog or walk or bike, people wonder if you have diabetes or some other disabling disease."

"I think it puts a tremendous pressure on the children. We need a little more Huck Finn around here...more time to kick tin cans down the street."

BOB HOPE, properly considered an American institution, accepted an award for distinguished public service recently at Princeton University. After the expected quips and one-liners, Mr. Hope turned serious, temporarily:

"As long as God blesses America, it will be a land where we can laugh at ourselves. I think the saddest part of my journeys around the world is to travel to a land where there is no laughter. That's a land with no freedom. Once freedom is taken away, the next thing to go is the smiles and the laughter. And I hope America will always be a country with laughter in her heart. Otherwise I might starve to death."

THE BEST THINGS in life may be free, and the best words may be little ones. Consider the advice from advertising man Art Kudner, quoted recently in a national publications newsletter:

"Big long words name little things. All big things have little names — such as life and death, peace and war, or dawn, day, night, hope, love, home. Learn to use little words in a big way. It is hard to do. But they say what you mean. When you don't know what you mean, use big words. That often fools little people."

DR. JOHN DIBLAGGIO, president of Michigan State University, discussed some of his philosophies in a recent alumni magazine:

On the future: "Perhaps we don't think enough about the future these days. I heard a criticism of a national figure that, to me, is a most negative one. The official was said to have 'an agenda, not a vision!' I am concerned that public policies often are being formulated from temporal agenda lists that lack the required long-range vision."

And on today's student: "I do have a concern that today's students are being less and less encouraged to take risks. Some seek clarity when they should be dreaming. They sometimes are being pressured, with far too much emphasis being placed on that first postgraduate job. At Michigan State, we educate students for their last job, not train them for their first job."

OTHER EDUCATORS also worry about students. For example, writing in the fifth century B.C., Socrates expressed these concerns:

"Our youth now love luxury. They have bad manners, contempt for authority; they show disrespect for their elders, and love chatter in places of exercise. They no longer rise when elders enter the room. They contradict their parents, chatter before company, gobble up their food, and tyrannize their teachers."

Maybe Socrates had reason to worry. We all know what happened to ancient Greece.

A READER, identified only as "Poor But Honest in Encino," recently passed along this observation to "Dear Abby":

"Recently you had an inspirational piece in your column pointing out that many men who became multimillionaires started out with nothing...J. Paul Getty and Conrad Hilton, to name two."

"I am reminded of the story about the grandfather who said to his 14-year-old grandson, 'Why, when I was your age, I went to work in a store for $10 a week, and in less than six years I owned the place!'"

"That can't be done today," the boy replied. "They have cash registers now."

Governor Signs Tuition Guarantee Plan

Warren M. Hoyt, Exec. Dir., MPA

Surrounded by some 30 children ranging in age from infant to teenager, Governor James Blanchard recently signed into law the state college tuition guarantee program with the establishment of the Michigan Education Trust.

Under the new program, parents and guardians will be able to guarantee tuition payments by "prepaying" the undergraduate tuition through either a lump sum payment or periodic payments calculated depending upon the child's age.

Under the plan, the contributions will be pooled and invested by the state to cover future tuitions of the participating students.

Besides the state's 15 public four-year schools, the prepaid tuition can be used at any of the state's 29 community or junior colleges or as partial tuition payment for tuition at private colleges in the state.

Final administration of the program now hinges upon a favorable decision by the Internal Revenue Service as to whether the contributions made to the fund are tax deductible.

Treasurer Robert Bowman said preliminary discussions have been held with representatives for the IRS and the initial comments have been "encouraging."

He said he expects a favorable ruling sometime in the spring of 1987 at which time the trust fund would immediately begin accepting contributions.

Supervision of the state fund would be handled by an authority with representation from the academic, business and financial fields.

During a bill signing ceremony in the Capitol Rotunda, Mr. Blanchard said the Michigan Education Trust program is an "important addition to our state's already strong commitment to higher education and it will make Michigan number one in the nation in providing access to a college education."

He noted some 37 other states have inquired about the establishment of the program for purposes of initiating similar programs in their respective states.

WELFARE CASELOAD CONTINUES

DECLINE IN NOVEMBER

The state's welfare caseload decreased for the seventh straight month in November, the Department of Social Services announced.

Aid to Dependent Children cases decreased by 1,689 (0.8 percent) to 212,950 cases, the lowest since January of 1980, when there were over 210,000 cases.

Last year at this time, there were 218,510 ADC cases. The Unemployed Parent portion of the ADC caseload declined by 256 cases (0.9 percent) to 28,120 cases, compared to last year when there were 30,920 cases.

General Assistance decreased by 1,724 (1.6 percent) to 106,260 cases, compared to last November when there were 118,630 cases. This month's GA caseload is the lowest since January of 1981, when there were 103,000 cases.

The combined ADC/GA caseload of 319,210 is just over the 317,000 monthly average projected for 1986-87. That average is down 20,000 from the 1985-86 level.

Here's a basketball oddity... Only once in the last 25 years has the team that had the scoring leader in the National Basketball Association also won the championship of the NBA. The only time it's happened in the last 25 years was the 1970-71 season when Kareem Abdul-Jabbar won the scoring title and his team won the NBA championship. You'd think having the scoring champ would help a team win the league title, but it hasn't worked out that way.

Has any basketball team ever gone through an entire game and not scored a point? It seems hard to believe, but there was once a shutout in college basketball when Dartmouth in 1900 beat Boston College, 44-0.

What are the most games in a row any basketball team ever won? The most amazing streak by any team in high school, college or pro ball was the one by the Boston, Lo., High School girls' team. Between 1947 and 1953, they won—not just 100 straight games or 150 straight or 200 straight—but the unbelievable total of 218 consecutive games to set the all-time record.

Viking Matman Misses Upset of Ranked Wrestler

Six Grayling wrestlers won medals at a big 16-team tournament in Freeland Saturday, Jan. 3.

Ward Jones was three seconds away from a championship but finished second. Jones had his opponent, ranked third in the state at 155 pounds, down 7-6 in the last seconds. The wrestler from DeWitt made a two-point move with two seconds left to escape with a win.

On the way to the finals, Jones beat a 16-1 Petoskey wrestler.

Four Vikings took 5th place Saturday. Mark Lowe, 119, went 4-1 to take fifth, Bucky Monforton, 126, went 4-1, Tim Colling, 138, went 4-1, and Brian Kernstock, 185, went 3-1 as they all took fifth.

Fred Fisher, 132, went 3-2 to take sixth.

Viking coach Don Ferguson said the tournament was an excellent one and good experience for his young wrestlers.

A Product of His Culture

The older person is a product of his culture. He is the end product of a lifetime of intrapsychic stresses, a lifetime of his own idiosyncratic and neurotic patterns. At this stage of life he still has assets, he still has limitations and he still has needs.

Inevitably, aging is accompanied by gradual declines in all areas. Our culture is not fully accepting of older people especially if they have mental disorders. Impatient tolerance often describes our attitude. This impatient tolerance is often taken to be rejection. Heap upon this social rejection, the physical decline of aging and the result is loss of self confidence, feelings of uselessness, insecurity and at times actual anxiety, panic and depression.

Dogs Are Better

When instruments couldn't pinpoint natural-gas leaks 18 feet underground in Canada, German shepherds, working in sub-zero temperatures over almost 100 miles of frozen ground, found more than 150 leaks, says National Geographic.

Those neurotically inclined in earlier life seem to have a more difficult time in their later years and cannot adequately adjust to the normal indispositions of aging.

Patterns can be changed, however, if the older person is given adequate support. Self esteem can be improved when he realizes that it is possible for him to improve when he realizes that it is possible for him to improve himself. Many of the earlier battles will seem like minor skirmishes, but can have a special significance at a time when victories are few and difficult to achieve.

Reverend Wm. Fraser who eased our sorrow with his inspiring message.

My son Larry A. Parks, who spoke a loving eulogy to his grandfather.

My daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Dean Rathbun, who did so much to help me from the beginning of dad's illness.

My daughter-in-law, Cindy, and my grandchildren, Briolat, Trevor Parks, Brian and Brenda Rathbun, who in their grief were able to do so much for me.

The people who served as pallbearers, Robert Lane, Robert Tuck, Harold Mertes, Brian Rathbun, Trevor Parks, Larry A. Parks, and honorary pallbearers, Dean Rathbun and Gene Pawlanta.

And also the ladies of Frederic who served the lovely dinner for the family and friends following the funeral.

Daniel's Den Hosts Greg Jaqua

Daniel's Den presents this Saturday, Dec. 10, Greg Jaqua (Jake-way) from Indian Rivers. Greg sings and plays the guitar, and does a lot of new contemporary Christian music out, as well as some of the old gospel tunes. Come and join us. All ages are welcome.

Daniel's Den is located on M-72 West just about 1 mile outside of Grayling. We are located in the fellowship hall of the Episcopal Church. The doors are open at 7:30 p.m. and music starts promptly at 8:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. Don't forget, we now have a nursery with babysitters to make it a more enjoyable night out for the whole family.

We would like to take this time to thank the youth group of the Episcopal Church for their ministry in the nursery, as well as in the refreshment area, we are very proud of the way they have helped the ministry. They are taking the proceeds from their ministry and sponsoring a boy in Africa.

We would also like to take this time to thank our board of directors, and all of the staff from the coffee house for their dedication and time given. Ministry is serving, and that's what we are here for to serve you, to give you a place to come and relax and bring the whole family and enjoy good entertainment, meet new friends, and fellowship with those you know in the surrounding communities.

The Den is just not Grayling people, many come from Mio, Fairview, Gaylord, Kalkaska, St. Helen, Roscommon, Traverse City, Elk Rapids, and surrounding communities. It's a place where Christians can come and fellowship, regardless of what church they are affiliated with, because our common bond is Jesus.

Have A Safe and Happy Holiday!

Holidays should be happy times. A time to relax and be with friends.

This year, we want to add to that measure of enjoyment with a new program designed to make our streets and highways safer. We call the program Alert Cab.

Through Alert Cab, the operator of a restaurant or tavern can call a special telephone number and arrange a free taxi ride home for a patron who is faced with a drunk driving situation.

Alert Cab is no substitute for being responsible when you drink, but it can increase the margin of safety. We think that's important.

Alert Cab is brought to you by participating Crawford County Taverns & Restaurants, and Deluxe Cab Service.

Alert Cab

Alert Cab will be starting in Crawford County New Year's Eve, December 31, 1986.

This ad is sponsored by Anheuser-Busch and Fabiano Brothers.

North Branch Notes

By Marlene Harris
(348-2587)

Would you like to spend a pleasant afternoon watching the partridge feed, while the river gurgles lazily past the door? Come with me as I spend a delightful afternoon doing just that, chatting with old friends who are now permanent residents here. I was warmly greeted at the door, after proper introductions, by the four-footed members of the Butler's extended family. There are two Dobermans, Bitte and baby Morgan, and two well mannered cats, Lily and Munchkin.

As we are about to welcome 1987 to the North Branch, let's also take time to welcome Doug and Kathy Butler to our community.

The Butlers wanted a spot to unwind. Doug's prime interest was any place near a good trout stream; Kathy held out for a home on the water. They compromised and got the best of both in their present home.

The original cabin was built by the Kellogg brothers in 1947 for Dr. Goodsell and his family. The Butlers purchased their retreat on the North Branch in 1975. The two families have kept in touch, and the Goodsell's have graciously given the Butlers several old photos of the original construction process, to compare with the renovating now completed. The beauty and charm of the old is subtly blended with the convenience of the new.

Doug was born, at home, on a farm in Clear Lake, Iowa, in 1931. His skills as a high school football player won him a four year scholarship to Iowa State, where he lettered all four years. After earning his Bachelor degree, he taught science and physical education for six years in Iowa. He also found time to coach football, track, basketball, and wrestling. He and his young family moved to Michigan where he went into counseling at Dondero High School in Royal Oak. During the next several years Doug obtained his Masters degree from Michigan State in 1962, became a single parent, served as Assistant Principal and went back to counseling until his retirement on June 16, 1986. The very next day Doug and Kathy were on their way north permanently.

Kathy was born in Detroit and is currently of legal voting age. She attended Dondero High School and, although they were both at Dondero at the same time in different capacities, they didn't meet and marry until many years later. Kathy went to Michigan State and received her Bachelor degree in 1964, then taught English and Social Studies in the inner-city of Detroit. She recalls having 24 desks to spread among 40 students and no useful supplies to help in teaching these children. The old movie, "Blackboard Jungle," sums up the conditions she coped with and survived.

Kathy earned her Masters degree at the University of Michigan and Wayne State, then did graduate work at Oakland University in special education. She taught in this field at both of the Royal Oak High Schools, Dondero and Kimball.

Doug and Kathy were married in 1973 and are equally proud of Doug's children, David and Kim. Dave is a jet pilot, carrier based, who gathers intelligence information for the Navy. Due to the highly secret nature of his work, his parents are never sure where he is. Dave and his wife, Susan, have made them the proud grandparents of Stephen David, born in Guam on September 5, 1986.

Their daughter, Kim, is a sales representative for Cosmer Corp., the makers of such well known scents as Gloria Vanderbilt, Polo, and Chaps. Kim was married last New Year's Eve and she and husband Rick are now living in San Diego.

Kathy is now using her unusual and rewarding skills as a special education teacher for the educable mentally impaired in West Branch for C.O.O.R. She has eight students, ages seven through thirteen, with eight different educational challenges. She is guiding them through these challenges with her own warm touch of skill and humor.

When retirement loomed ahead for Doug, Kathy decided he needed a hobby. She says she fell into a fantastic deal for the purchase of a set of "N" gauge, (smaller than HO), model trains. From the start of a set mounted on a 3x8 foot door, it has grown into a hobby encompassing a shed 18x20 feet. Doug now has 26 diesels and steamers, boxes of other cars, assorted equipment for building unusual terrain, and tons of magazines on the subject. Kathy says she has created a monster. Doug's hobbies now include fishing and model trains while Kathy would like to pursue hers with a computer.

I had a short visit from Hank Balzer Saturday, December 20. He tells me that he had outpatient surgery at St. Lukes in Saginaw on Thursday, December 18. A lump was removed from the prostate area and everything tested out fine. He told me, "I put my fate in the hands of the Lord, and he didn't fail me." Glad to see that Hank was out and around so fast.

I have been told that the annual "Christmas tree safari" went well again this year. Everyone is home safe and the lights are twinkling merrily. Congratulations gang, on a job well done.

Smokers Can Avoid Weight Gain When They Quit

By Gail Edwards,
Extension Home Economist
Cooperative Ext. Service

Many smokers hesitate to quit smoking because they think they will gain weight, but the individual who is prepared to quit can avoid weight gain. A key is to remember that smoking and eating are both oral habits, and it is easy to substitute one for the other.

Before giving up smoking, make a list of substitutes for tobacco that don't contain calories. This list might include a walk around the block, a phone call to a friend, an exercise that relaxes the shoulder muscles, or a small job that requires busy hands. Each person should develop his or her own list. When you feel the urge to smoke, pull out the list and choose something to do in place of smoking.

If you find yourself lighting up unconsciously, find a way to be conscious of your hands. Try getting a manicure, wearing a different ring, or wearing a ring on a different finger or on the other hand. If you are aware of your hands, you are more likely to think about what they are doing.

Have low-calorie snack foods on hand. Crunchy carrot sticks, celery or raw cauliflower, turnip slices and broccoli can satisfy the "munchies." Fresh fruits such as apples, bananas, or berries will satisfy the need for something sweet. If you need something in your mouth, chewing gum might be the answer.

Dentists may suggest sugarless gum to lessen the possibility of cavities, but remember that both regular and sugarless gum have far fewer calories than a candy bar or several pieces of hard candy.

Some ex-smokers overeat because as the effects of smoking wear off, they find they can taste the real flavor of the food. If this happens to you, make an effort to eat slower and savor each bite of food. It takes about 20 minutes for your body to get the message that you have eaten enough. If you are a fast eater, it's easy to consume far more calories than you need.

Breaking a habit isn't easy, even when you try to replace it with a desirable alternative. But you can do it if you prepare yourself.

Bits of Talk by Fay Bovee

Vivan and Ruth Campbell enjoyed their annual family Christmas get-together on December 21. The family has grown so large in number that they have outgrown their homes for this special occasion and gathered at the Free Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. The family consisted of all five of their children and their spouses, all but five of their grandchildren and all but one of their great grandchildren. Also joining the family for this occasion was Ed Hartig's mother, Louise; Coralee Campbell's niece from Wisconsin; and Tim Reeves of Grayling. There were 68 present and six family members who could not join them. A delicious buffet luncheon was served after which a short program was enjoyed by those present. After they all joined in singing a few Christmas carols, the many gifts under the Christmas tree were opened and enjoyed by all.

Harold and Ilene Hatfield and Carl and Rose Hatfield spent from Saturday to Tuesday of last week in Toronto enjoying the sights, many fine restaurants and shopping.

Evert Jones spent several days over Christmas with his daughter, Jill Boyd and daughter, Susan, in Schwartz Creek.

We enjoyed a short visit with the Jappe and Louise Smith children who were home for their mother's funeral, Mildren Krantz of Fallbrook, Sam F. Smith of Atascadero, and Sarah Smith of Tustin, California, and Lew W. Smith of Ann Arbor. The Smiths were one of the early Grayling families.

Ron and Debbie Calkins are proud parents of a baby boy, Brent Aaron who was born on December 18, 1986, at Northern Michigan Hospital, Petoskey. He weighed 8 pounds 8 oz. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Calkins and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hawley. Great grandparents are Mrs. Clara Calkins of Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Canfield.

Joel Rasmussen went to Bowling Green, Ohio, to pick up his two daughters, Jennifer and Joan, so they could spend two weeks here for the holidays. John Rasmussen picked up his three children, Jack, Jessica, and Joshua, in Grand Rapids and they spent a week here over Christmas. Spending Christmas Day with the Jack and Joan Rasmussen family were the Keith Bobenmoyers and children, Hellen Harwood, Jill Harwood, Jason Rasmussen, Lisa LaMotte, and Tracy Hull.

Jeff Harney of the US Navy of Norfolk, Virginia, spent the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cragg and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harney.

Holiday guests of Mrs. Ruth Fenton were Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Holtcamp and Adam of Traverse City, Randy Holtcamp, Peg and son, Bill Menge, of Traverse City. Christmas Day guests also included Mrs. Arlene Williams and Barb and Ed Holtcamp and son, Matt, of Grayling.

George and Evelyn Kent spent the Christmas holiday with their daughter and family, Marla and Greg Chandler, Andrew and Retina, in Saline. On Sunday afternoon, December 28, 1986, Marla hosted a reception for friends and relatives in that area in honor of her brother and wife, Charles and Kathy Kent of Columbus, Georgia, who were recently married. The Kents, the Chandlers and Charles Kents including Kathy's daughter, Courtney, returned to Grayling where George and Evelyn hosted a reception for Charles and Kathy. It was held at the Kent's Harbor Beach home on Saturday evening, January 3, 1987, for close friends and relatives in the Grayling area.

Don and Ernestine Palmer spent a week in the East, going to Ridgewood, New Jersey, to visit her daughter, Anne Marie Church, and husband, Tom Hendrickson. They enjoyed a visit to the museum and dinner in New York City. On their return trip, they stopped near Binghamton, NY, to stay overnight with friends and also visited Niagara Falls while coming back through Canada.

Vern Hoag's three boys have all returned from three years duty in Europe and are now stationed in the U.S. Rick Hoag, who was stationed near Frankfurt, Germany, returned in late November and spent a month here with his father before going on to F E Warren AF Base in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Mike and Tracy Hoag and Jennifer, who had been in England, spent three weeks here at about the same time visiting his father and her family, the George Fentons. They went on to Montana where Mike is stationed at Malstrom AF Base. Gary and Abbie Hoag and Nichole and Steven arrived in New York from England on December 2 where they picked up their car and drove to Michigan. While here they also visited her brother and sister in Michigan and enroute to Travis AF Base in California on New Year's Day, they stopped in Eaton Rapids to visit Gary's grandfather, Paul Mergner, and other relatives.

Angie Stephan, daughter of Lawrence and Linda Stephan, spent from December 19 to January 5 at her home here. Angie is a fourth-year pharmacy student at Ferris State College.

Mrs. Edgar McPherson's home on Chestnut Street is still the same attractive yellow color that it was before, but instead of paint it has completely new steel siding. She is very pleased with it and it certainly does look like a well-kept comfortable home.

THE NEW AGE MOVEMENT

Part 5 Naming Names

We continue the editorial, "NAMING NAMES" by Dr. M.H. Reynolds, Jr., Editor of Foundation Magazine.

"In 2 Timothy 4:10, the Holy Spirit led Paul to 'NAME NAMES' by reporting that 'Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world,' Demas was a brother who fell prey to worldliness, a sin which is very prevalent today. It was essential to name Demas and identify his sin so that others would not follow in the path of disobedience. God obviously does not concur with the false philosophy that it is always wrong to 'NAME NAMES' where disobedient believers are involved."

"The apostle John, the apostle of love, was led by the Holy Spirit to 'NAME NAMES' when, in 3 John 9, 10, he rebuked Diotrophes and specified his acts of disobedience. God led Paul to expose and publicly rebuke Peter for his compromise (Galatians 2:11-16). This was a serious matter for even Barnabas was 'carried away with their dissimulation' (Galatians 2:13). Furthermore, as a wonderful example of how 'NAMING NAMES' in a scriptural, godly manner should be received on the part of the one mentioned, read the inspired words of Peter in 2 Peter 3:14-16 where he refers to Paul, the one God used to name and rebuke him publicly as 'our beloved brother Paul'."

"There are many other examples of 'NAMING NAMES' in the Old Testament which cannot be detailed within the scope of this article. Over and over again, God specifically identified by name even his own dear prophets and servants when they departed from His Word in their own personal lives and/or were leading His people astray. Abraham, 'the friend of God,' and David, 'a man after God's own heart,' are but two of many examples of God's servants who disobeyed His Word and were rebuked."

"Although it is true that there are some situations in which 'NAMING NAMES' is not necessary or beneficial, one of our great concerns today is the growing fallacy that one should never 'NAME NAMES'. Why? Because this not only paves the way for false teachers to boldly promote their damnable heresies in the name of Christianity without risk of exposure; but also because it makes it very difficult for faithful pastors to warn those who have closed their eyes to the many 'wolves in sheep's clothing' which are already 'in the flock' and have made it well nigh impossible to hear and heed any warning that may be given by reason of the fact that they doggedly hold to Satan's clever philosophy that it is always wrong and unloving to 'NAME NAMES'."

God's Etching

Man's ventures in art merely imitate the magnificence of God's designs. No museum can offer a winter landscape to rival God's own etching.

The works of the Divine Artist not only bring us beauty, peace and inspiration. They teach us fundamental lessons for every-day living. The love so evident in nature's beauty is a love we can all share. The orderliness of creation inspires unity, trust, brotherhood.

For all our spiritual searching you and I cannot match the touch of the Almighty. But following lines He has drawn for us—perhaps one day our human scene will look more like something God etched.

Reports of Council Members.

The matter will be discussed at a future meeting. Mr. Golnick suggested that a record be kept relative to the number of people who come to the office between 4:30 and 5:00 p.m. for 30 days. This will be done.

Ms. Latuszek asked about the new smoking law which goes into effect 1-1-87. Mr. Morford explained what has been done to date to comply with the law.

Lovells Extension Group

The Lovells Home Extension met on Tues., December 9, at the Womens' club house with seventeen present.

Co-hosting were Margie Harwood and Joyce Mullin. Each member brought an International dish to pass. These recipes from various countries were very tasty.

A brief business meeting was held and cards were addressed to members unable to be present and to some who are away for the winter.

The Mystery Package went to Velda Marshall.

Following the meeting, an exchange of gifts was held and several Bingo games were played for our Christmas party.

On Thursday, January 15, we plan to attend a Jury trial in District Court at the Crawford County Courthouse. This date is tentative as some trials are settled out of court or postponed. You will be notified by January 14th if the trial is still on. This will take the place of our regular meeting which would have been on January 14.

Make life a little better for someone else—that's the goal of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program. Since 1972, we've served in over 87 agencies in a two-county area, including hospitals, schools, libraries, medical care facilities, probate courts, private social service agencies, Red Cross, Girl Scouts, Special Olympics, Museums, and Hartwick Pines and the Grayling Fish Hatchery.

We place volunteers according to their skills and interest, and new positions have been created for a new volunteer's special experience. To volunteer, you must be at least 60 years of age. We assist our volunteers by providing mileage and insurance while in service. Our offices are at 308 Lawndale, Grayling 348-4341; 5220 E. Houghton Lake Drive, Houghton Lake 366-5613; and our central administration office at Kirtland Community College, 10075 N. St. Helen Rd., Roscommon 275-5121, ext. 216.

Herbal Corner

"Sage advice" is a statement quite a few people have heard. When you think about it, it usually means advice given to fix or to heal.

The botanical name for Sage is Salvia officinalis. Salvia is derived from the Latin Salvere, to be saved, in reference to the curative properties of the plant which was used as a medicinal herb. Officinalis indicates that the plant was listed by the pharmacists as a healing plant. The Old English spelling was 'Sawge', which has become our present-day name of Sage.

Sage has been used medicinally as a stimulant, astringent, tonic, and carminative. It was used as a mouth wash for sore throats and to prevent excessive flow of saliva. Sage was also used to take care of gas, hence, the reason for its use in stuffing.

Wild game and domestic fowl have a lot of grease which creates digestive problems for some people. Sage and onion combined helps to prevent some of these problems when used as a stuffing for duck, geese, and pork. I have noticed in cooking that those herbs that taste good with a particular food usually enhances not only the flavor but the digestion as well.

Basil is another example of this. In their growing habitat, tomatoes and basil compliment each other. In cooking they blend really well. In the digestion, basil seems to counteract the tomato's acidic properties. The tomato is somewhat sweet with its tartness and basil is sweet with its licorice-anise like flavor.

Rosemary is another herb that is used in those food that can cause digestive problems. It has similar properties to Sage but used in less quantities because it also has a camphor-like fragrance. I remember when we had a Vietnamese foster boy with us, he pointed to his spaghetti and pointed to the tree outside of our window. I gave him a puzzled look, and he said, "Tree," and pointed to the rosemary in his plate. We all chuckled because the rosemary did look like the pine needles on our Jack pine. Out of curiosity I looked up rosemary and learned that it does, indeed, come from the pine tree family.

Herbally yours,
E. Diona Cerelli, C.H.
